

Name: _____

Date: _____

Worksheet: Expand Sentences with Adverbs

Add adverbs to the spaces below.

Remember: Adverbs tell us when, where, how, and to what degree something happened. Adverbs add meaning. Adverbs that tell us how something happened are called adverbs of manner. They often end in 'ly'.

THE TORN DOLL

_____, Mary was heedless about many things. She threw her playthings _____ about. _____, her mom had enough. She called her _____ spoiled child and showed her the _____ broken toys. _____, her mom was _____ annoyed with her. This made Mary unhappy. Mother spoke _____ with Mary. They spoke for _____ one hour. Then, mother took Mary to task.

She was to stop that _____ habit, but Mary _____ did not listen. _____ she ran about _____ and played with Dash, her pet dog. In the yard she found her nicest doll all _____ torn and _____ broken, and its dress was _____ covered with mud. Mary knew that Dash had done this, and she scolded him _____.

She _____ carried the broken doll to her mother, she showed it to her.

Name: _____ Date: _____

She kept crying _____. Her mom told her that if she had put the doll away the dog would not have got it.

"You must not blame the dog, Mary. He does not know it is wrong for him to play with your doll. This is your lesson to learn."

"I will try _____," said Mary. And her mother promised to mend the doll.