Determine the parts of speech for the words in bold and write the answer in the space provided below.

HARD WORK AND LAZINESS

In a large<sup>1</sup> house, lived a lazy young man. He woke up in the afternoon<sup>2</sup>, ate his meals and then lay in bed again. He had a parrot named Polly<sup>3</sup>. She watched this lazy fellow and was puzzled<sup>4</sup> by him.

One day, Polly asked the young man, "Don't you get tired of lying in bed all day and all night? The sun has been out hours ago, and people have finished half their day's work. Why are you so lazy<sup>5</sup>?" she<sup>6</sup> ask as she ruffled<sup>7</sup> her feathers.

The young man yawned and answered, "Every morning, when I wake up, two<sup>8</sup> friends whisper in my ears. One friend is Hard work and the other Laziness<sup>9</sup>. Hard Work says, 'Wake up! There is lots to do today. Time<sup>10</sup> is passing by, don't waste it by sleeping.' But Laziness says, 'Why the hurry to wake up? Sleep some more. Why<sup>11</sup> should you work while there are others to work hard?'"

The young man continued, "I listen patiently<sup>12</sup> to both my friends. All my time goes by like that and so, I keep lying in bed for a long time."
