

Name: _____

Date: _____

Could have, Should have, and Would have Worksheet

Could have, should have, and would have are used to create conditional sentences. They indicate:

1. advice (should have),
2. possibilities (could have), and
3. imagined result (would have).

Select the correct verb for the sentence.

Matthew thought to himself that he should have _____ to bed earlier.

- go gone went going

Daniel should not have _____ the dog into his room.

- allow allowed let letted

Milo could have _____ of the bicycle and hurt himself.

- fall fell fallen falling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Could have, Should have, and Would have Worksheet

Mark could have _____ all day.

- swim swam swum swimmmed

“I should have _____ inside today,” said Willow.

- stay stayed staying

Mr. Clarke should have _____ his report since morning.

- complete completes completing completed

I should have _____ a hat and raincoat before I left home.

- wear wore worn