

Name: _____

Date: _____

Past Tense and Past Participle Worksheet

Past tense is a tense while the past participle is a specific form used in the past and present perfect tenses. It is used: to create past verb forms and as an adjective.

Type the correct form of the verb in the space provided. Observe the use of the participle.

Have you _____ Betty Lou, lately? (see)

I _____ her two days ago, but why do you ask? (see)

Betty had _____ Luis a bottle of banana jam. (sell)

Luis had _____ the jam would last at least a month. (hope)

If the jam had _____ or even two months, he would have been very happy. (last)

Last week, his sister and her five children _____ the entire bottle of jam. (eat)

Then they asked him if he had _____ another bottle. (buy)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Past Tense and Past Participle Worksheet

Choose the correct form of each verb.

SORT ELEMENTS

disappointing

disappointed

embarrassing

embarrassed

He was _____ when he arrived late to class.

It was _____ to ask for donations.

When the TV program was cancelled, Jane was _____.

It must have been _____ to see him lose the race.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Past Tense and Past Participle Worksheet

Select the correct form of the verb for the sentences below.

a. We don't have any money. We _____ all of it yesterday.

spending

has spend

have spent

b. Mark and Aaron are not strangers. We _____ them before.

have met

has met

meeting

c. We cannot go along with you. We _____ our tickets.

losing

losted

have lost

Write the Past participle of the following verbs.

blow _____

deal _____

am _____

become _____

do _____

is _____

build _____

ride _____

clean _____

hear _____

arise _____

see _____

go _____

bleed _____

stop _____

eat _____

beat _____

drink _____

saw _____

visit _____

raise _____

are _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Past Tense and Past Participle Worksheet