Will we see you there

Please, can I leave now

Ouch  I bounced my elbow

Don't run, Miguel  You could fall

We rode in a hot air balloon

Fire is hot, ice is cold, do you think it is

How sweet it is wise to touch fire

This is where I live

The Seven Sticks

A man had seven sons  Mark, Marlon, Marx, Milton, Marvin, Mervyn, and Mel  They were always quarrelling  They left their studies and work, to quarrel among themselves  Some bad men were looking forward to the death of their father, to cheat them out of their property by making them quarrel about it  Why are you boys quarrelling  said the good old man

The good old man, one day, called his sons around him  He laid before them seven sticks, which were bound together. He said,  I will pay a hundred dollars to the one who can break this bundle  Each one strained every nerve to break the bundle  After a long but vain trial, they all said that it could not be done  And yet, my boy  said the father  nothing is easier to do  He then untied the bundle, and broke the sticks, one by one, with perfect ease.

Ah  said his sons,  it is easy enough to do it so; anybody could do it in that way

Their father replied,  As it is with these sticks, so is it with you, my sons. So long as you hold fast together and aid each other, you will prosper, and none can injure you. But if the bond of union be broken, it will happen to you just as it has to these sticks, which lie here broken on the ground.
