

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 7

Draw a circle around the sentence within each group that is free of punctuation errors.

1.

- a) Harry and Annie lived one and one-half-blocks from school.
  - b) Harry and Annie lived one and one-half blocks from school.
  - c) Harry and Annie lived one and one half-blocks from school.
-

2.

- a) 'Twas a pleasant walk down the lane, and through the park.
  - b) I hardly know whether theyd liked it better during the rainy season or dry season
  - c) They'd pretend that they were travellers exploring a new country.
-

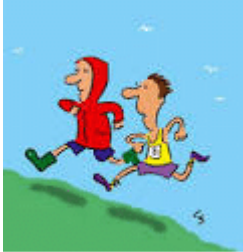

3.

- a) Their mother would say, "Don't stop to play by the pond children."
- b) "Keep on the path!" said their mother.
- c) "All-right, mother, said Annie shaking her head vigorously."
- d) "All right, mother," said Harry disappointed – for he's very fond of running and pelting stones into the ponds.

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 7

4.

- a) Tom and Jake are joining the ten-kilometer race competition.
  - b) The competition will start at St. Joseph Road (the four road junction) at 4:30 in the morning.
  - c) The men had been training for months from January – August, and they are hopeful.
  - d) I look forward seeing them (Tom and Jake) in this competition.
-