

Name: _____ Date: _____

WORKSHEET - SENSORY WORDS

Use the details in the following passage to add sensory details. Observe the use of personification in the story.

SENSORY WORDS

Use the adjectives and adverbs from the word box below to add the sensory details in the passage below. Write your answer in the space provided.

| | | | | | | | | |
|-----------------|------------------|------------------|----------------|---------------|------------------|--------------|-------------------|---------------|
| broad | cold | dark | empty | grey | hiding | hit | irritating | loudly |
| main | old black | pretty | rocking | silent | snickered | stony | slowly | small |
| terrible | ticking | throbbing | wet | yellow | young | | | |

It was a _____, _____ day. The sun was _____ behind the _____ clouds.

Mr. Monroe had a _____ headache. He grumbled to himself and held on to a cup of _____ coffee. Out on the _____ porch, he sat waiting for his ride to work. The clock was _____; he knew he would be late. Then suddenly a _____ car _____ drove up the _____ driveway. The _____ driver looked at the _____ man and rudely honk the horn _____.

The noise _____ Mr. Monroe with such a force he almost fell of his _____ chair. The _____ man _____. He was about to heckle the _____ man, but stopped himself. He noticed that the elderly Mr.

Munro was not amused.

Name: _____ Date: _____

“Mr. Munroe, I presumed?” amused the young man with an _____ grin.

“You better not be my driver today,” responded Mr. Monroe. “You are annoying!” The young man looked hurt, but quickly recovered his senses and annoying wit.

“Only the best you could find _____ man,” said the _____ man. “I will wait for you. That’s a _____ lunch kit you got there, _____ man.” Mr. Monroe looked to the heavens hopefully. He said a _____ prayer as he put down the _____ cup. It now had a _____ ring around its mouth. Mr. Monroe hardly sat down in the back seat, the _____ driver _____ turned the _____ car around and speed out into the _____ road. Mr. Monroe’s forehead was by now _____ mercilessly.