

OBSERVABLE BODY PARTS 2

Exercise

1. Select the functions of the beak on the parrot.

- It is used for preening.
- It helps the animal eat its food.
- It makes the animal look strong and threatening.
- It helps the animal smile.
- It helps the animal hunt for food.

2. Select the function of fur on animals such as the one below.

- It is good for preening.
- It helps protect or camouflage the animal.
- It helps keep the animal warm.
- It helps keep the animal beautiful.
- It ensures the animal is always clean and healthy looking.

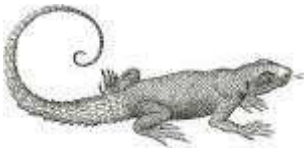

Name: _____ Date: _____

3. Select the function of talons on animals such as the one below.

- It can be used for digging.
- It can be used as a hunting tool.
- It protects them from predators.
- It can be used for swimming.

4. Select the function of scales animals such as the one below.

- It helps the animal slithering and movement.
- It welcomes other predators to eat it.
- It offers protection making it difficult for predators to bite or attack
- It is highly venomous, so other animals would not eat it.
- It helps the animal retain water.
- It can help hide the animal in the environment

5. Select the function of teeth on animals such as the one below.

- It can be used to confuse other animals.
- It can be used to defend the animal.
- It can poison other animals
- It is used to break down food.