

Some Rules of Capitalization

1. Capitalize the pronoun “I” and the first word of a sentence.
2. Capitalize first word of a direct quotation that is a complete sentence.
3. Capitalize the first word in the salutation and closing of a letter.
4. Capitalize the numerals In a topic outline, topics and subtopics,
5. Capitalize the proper nouns and proper adjectives.

Correct the following errors in punctuation. Rewrite the sentences, etc. in your notebook.

- 1, dear miss martin
2. sincerely yours
3. tina loves to help her mom in the kitchen.
4. the southern cross, a constellation, can be seen only in the southern hemisphere.
5. Have you read crime and punishment by Dostoyevsky?
6.
  - i. public service jobs
    - a. Career jobs
    - b. volunteer jobs
7. The concert will be held on christmas eve.
8. My mother drives a toyata camry.
9. next year I am going to learn french.
10. What is your favourite guyanese dish?