

Grammar Worksheet

Could and Would

Complete the sentences using either "could" or "would".

Remember:

Use could when speaking about past ability or possibility.

Use would for polite requests or hypothetical situations.

1. I _____ help you with your homework.
2. They _____ play outside if it stops raining.
3. We _____ visit the museum this weekend.
4. He _____ ride a horse when he was just five years old.
5. He _____ always share his toys with his friends.
6. She _____ be happy to join us for the party.
7. I _____ like a peanut butter and jelly sandwich, please.
8. We _____ play games together every Friday.
9. You _____ ask the teacher for extra help.
10. She _____ sing very well when she was younger.
11. You _____ enjoy the book if you give it a chance.
12. They _____ go to the beach if it were sunny.

Answers

Using could:

1. I could help you with your homework.
2. She could sing very well when she was younger.
3. They could play outside if it stops raining.
4. We could visit the museum this weekend.
5. He could ride a horse when he was just five years old.
6. You could ask the teacher for extra help.

Using would:

1. I would like a peanut butter and jelly sandwich, please.
2. She would be happy to join us for the party.
3. They would go to the beach if it were sunny.
4. We would play games together every Friday.
5. He would always share his toys with his friends.
6. You would enjoy the book if you give it a chance.