Web Maps

Web maps is a visual representation that can be invaluable tools for students when writing paragraphs. The process begins with brainstorming, where students can jot down their main theme or topic in the center of the map. From there, they can branch out by adding supporting details, examples, and arguments.

Exercise 1

Create a web map concerning local wild life habitats.

Detail 1

Detail 2

Main Idea:

Detail 3

Detail 4