

Spelling Worksheet

There is a spelling mistake in each sentence. Rewrite each sentence and correct the errors.

1. The flours in the garden attracted many bees and butterflies.
2. After the rain, the grownd was soft and muddy, perfect for a game of soccer.
3. It's important to wear protective gear while playing sports to avoid enjuring yourself.
4. The love between them felt etirnal, as if time had no power over their bond.
5. It was a pleesore to finally meet my long-time pen pal in person.
6. She decided to buy a new leater jacket for the upcoming winter season.
7. He let out a low whesel as he admired the stunning view from the mountaintop.
8. The new sampo I tried left my hair feeling soft and smelling fresh.
9. The kids played in the slush left behine by the melting snow, laughing and throwing snowballs.
10. The magician's tricks were so unbeleivable that the audience was left in awe.
11. After taking a deep breath, she felt the tension leave her body as she exhailed slowly.
12. He was embarrassed to find out that his name was misspelled on the invitation.
13. The travelers shared stories of their adventures over a warm meal at the local inn.
14. The seeds she planted in the spring finally sprouted, bringing life to her garden.